

ANNEXATION.

Dates and Costs of the Several Additions Made to the United States.

(Round Table.)

The first annexation to the United States was the Province of Louisiana. France received $15,000,000 from our Government for it. The articles of conveyance were signed at Paris, April 30, 1803, by Livingston and Monroe on the part of the United States, and by Barbe Marbois on the part of France. By this purchase 1,171,931 square miles were added to the area of the Union, including the nearly all of the Mississippi Valley. The next addition was Florida, ceded by Spain to the United States in return for the payment by the latter country of claims of American citizens against Spain amounting to $5,000,000. The limits of Florida at the time of the purchase were the same as now. Texas was annexed without the formality of a treaty in 1845. It added 876,133 square miles to the Union. New Mexico and Upper California were acquired as a part of the results of the Mexican war, although Mexico was appraised for the loss by the sum of $15,000,000, and Texas was afterwards paid $10,000,000 for that part of New Mexico east of the Rio Grande. The area of the republic was thus increased by 545,793 square miles. By the Gadsden Treaty of 1853, the United States acquired from Mexico for the sum of $10,000,000, the possession of the Mojave Valley, comprising the southern part of Arizona, an area of 45,535 square miles. By the treaty of March 30, 1867, Russia ceded the whole of Alaska, 577,390 square miles, to the United States, receiving therefor the sum of $7,200,000. The total number of square miles of Territory acquired by annexation is 2,762,040, more than three-quarters of the total area of the Union.

Unsurveyed Railway Lands.

The San Francisco Chronicle says:

Now that the Senate has set the Presidential succession bill fairly on the way to become a law, no time should be lost in taking up the bill introduced last year by Senator Van Wyck of Nebraska to compel railway companies to pay for the surveys of their land grants or surrender them to the public domain. The policy of the land-grant roads has been to refuse to pay for surveys of the lands. By so doing the title remained in the United States and the lands escaped local taxation. Thus large sections of Nebraska, Kansas, Colorado, Nevada, Oregon, California, and several of the Territories fail to contribute their share to the support of the local governments, and the whole burden of taxation falls on lands which were not acquired from railways. Tillamook county, D. T., undertook to collect taxes from railway lands; the Courts below affirmed the right of the county to levy the tax, but the Supreme Court on appeal decided, as it could not help doing, that until the land were surveyed the title remained in the United States, and that it was not within the power of a county, or State, or Territory, to tax them. It is now time that this should be corrected.

There would be no injustice in an Act declaring that all lands granted to railways and remaining unsurveyed after a given time after the passage of the Act should be deemed to have been abandoned by the companies, and should be restored to the public domain. This would not be unfair to the land-grant companies, for where, as their agents have stated in some instances, the lands were too poor to be worth the cost of a survey they would have the opportunity of relinquishing them. It would be just to the people, for it is manifestly unfair that the whole burden of taxation should be thrown on one class of landowners while another set escapes altogether; and the passage of the Act would tend to the security of titles, which is now disturbed by the anomalous position in which land-grant property has been placed by the refusal of the companies to perfect their titles.

It will be interesting to note the Committee to which Van Wyck's bill will be referred. If it goes to the Railroad Committee it will probably slumber there for the whole of the session, for six of the eleven members are in the service of the railway corporations. It should go, seemingly, to the Committee on Public Lands, which in the last Congress consisted of Plumb, of Kansas. Blair, Dolph, Morgan, Gibson, Hill, Van Wyck, Walker and Slater. If Hill, Walker and Slater are replaced by three corporation men, these three with Plumb and Dolph will control the committee, and the chance of a favorable report will be slim. Possible a sense of decency may induce the Senate to give the people a fair show, and in that case the bill may be allowed to emerge from the pigeonhole of the Committee.

In discussing the death of Vanderbilt, the Graphic says: "What infinite rest must be that of the tired over-burdened millionaire, however, at this moment! What a heavy load of care has, finally, been taken from his shoulders! All men must work; but Vanderbilt, notwithstanding his apparent ease, worked according to the inevitable law, in proportion to the greatness of his responsibility, and the grave is probably as much the 'palace of rest' to him as it is to the poorer man who goes to it as the only refuge that belongs to Earth." How true! Those people who sigh to change places with millionaires only show their weakness and their folly.

The suit of the Government against Barlow & Sanderson, late Star route contractors, to recover $60,000, was concluded on the 18th in the United States Circuit Court at Denver. Judge Hallett held that the large extra allowances made to contractors by Brady was in direct violation of law, but it was necessary for the Government to prove actual fraud in order to recover the sum paid. The ruling was unexpected by both sides. The jury brought in a verdict for the defendants. The case will probably be taken to the Supreme Court.

A sensation has been caused in London by the arrest of a young man and woman at Kensington on a charge of extorting money from the Prince of Wales and threatening His Royal Highness in the event of his not complying with their demand. The prisoners were taken before a magistrate where a formal examination was held, resulting in their being remanded. It is expected that disclosures of a serious nature will be made when the case is again called.

Serious charges have been preferred against Superintendent Brown of the Stockton State Insane Asylum. The charges are in writing, and are in the possession of the Board. The Stockton Mail made a demand upon Secretary Orr of the Board for a production of the charges; the demand was refused, and a mandamus suit will be brought by the Mail.

At a meeting of the Western Export Association Whisky Pool, held in Chicago, it was decided to reduce the price of raw goods from 111 to 110 per gallon, and to limit all distilleries at present running to 33% per cent. of their running capacity. It was also decided to export even at loss, and to equalize exports according to the domestic demands.

The Virginia City Enterprise thinks Hon. William M. Stewart is the most eligible man in California for United States Senator from Nevada, and the Pioche Record, also Republican, says: "The only claim that W. M. Stewart has to the Senatorship of Nevada is that he was one of the counsel for ex-Senator Sharon in his trouble with Miss Hill."

The Elizabethport, N. J., Singer sewing machine factory has been shut down and 2,500 employees informed by placard that operations were suspended until further notice because of a tax levy by the city. A public meeting of the employees has been called. The company owes $20,000 in taxes and refuses to pay.

The steamer Dolphin left her anchorage at the Brooklyn navy yard, yesterday morning and proceeded out on her trial trip. She goes to Newport and then goes South. Her cruise will last 60 days, and during that time her merits and demerits will be carefully noted.

PLAYING A DEMAGOGUE.

(Silver State.)

Some months ago the Reno Gazette which was doubtless inspired by corporation influences in San Francisco, announced that William M. Stewart, who has not been actually nor constructively a citizen of Nevada since the expiration of his Senatorial term in 1873, would be a candidate for United States Senator from this State to succeed Senator Fair. Subsequent to this announcement Mr. Stewart made occasional visits to Nevada, and published a monograph on silver in the Enterprise, which the Silver State learned from a reliable source was the joint production of himself and G. W. Baker, of Enreka. In this monograph he asserted that silver was secretly and fraudulently demonetized in 1873 by surreptitiously inserting a section to that effect in the Revised Statutes. The Silver State expressed the belief that Mr. Stewart, while Senator from this State, voted for the bill to demonetize silver in 1873, but not having the Congressional Globe of that date at hand it could not positively assert that he did so.

Now General R. M. Clarke in the Reno Journal shows that Stewart is a blatant Demagogue, and his "monograph" a tissue of falsehoods. He shows from the record that there is not a word or syllable on the subject of silver in the Revised Statutes that is not contained in the Act of February 12, 1873, that the attention of both Houses of Congress was repeatedly called to the subject; that the bill was thoroughly debated, and its provisions explained in detail and well understood by the members of both Houses; that Mr. Stewart himself both spoke of and voted for the bill; that Mr. Stewart's remarks are recorded in the Congressional Globe for 1870-71 on pages 371, 372, 373, 374, 377, 396, and 397, and that it passed the Senate January 10, 1871, Mr. Stewart voting for the bill. The bill was amended in the House, and returned to the Senate, in May, 1872, and discussed at length, Mr. Stewart participating in the debates, and the Senate not concurring in the House amendments, the bill was referred to a conference committee of the two Houses and finally became a law in February, 1873, nearly three years after its introduction. Mr. Clarke literally flays the demagogue alive; shows that while Senator from Nevada he did not consider silver coin good enough for the bondholders, which in true and old fashion he now denounces hoping to gain popularity by doing so, but advocating, by voice and vote the passage of a bill to demonetize silver, by reducing the legal tender quality of coins of that metal to amounts not exceeding five dollars.

In the face of his record and falsehood on silver, no friend of that metal, be he Republican or Democrat, can support William M. Stewart for United States Senator from Nevada, even though he should build a dozen houses in Carson in which to reside at intervals until after the ensuing election.

Trying to Swindle the Government.

The New York Tribune says: Out of 70 firms importing silks and velvets 22 have tried to escape the payment of port duties to a total extent of a little more than $1,500,000 since last January. Out of 12,000 invoices passed during the year 1885 more than 2,000 have been raised, and a large part of these above the penalty-line per cent. Every day the Appraiser is called upon to advance at least five invoices. These invoices belong to the firm whose previous invoices have been advanced. Some of these importers learn nothing by experience, except that it is too costly to be advanced more than 10 per cent., as in that case they have to pay the penalty of 20 per cent. In order to avoid the per cent. line, they voluntarily advance their invoices 7% to 15 per cent. In spite of this regular effort to relieve the Appraiser, that official is often compelled to make another raise to bring the goods up to their market value.

Automatic Telegraphy.

William F. C. Shanks, of New York, has made a written application to the Senate Committee on Postoffices and Postroads for a hearing on the Edmunds' bill in behalf of the telegraph company organized by him for the transmission of commercial correspondence and press dispatches, by automatic machinery, over a new compound wire. The representatives of the company will be heard by the committee in January.

The Hawthorne Bulletin says gradually the gold discoveries are approaching the Reservation lines and the Indians are on the watch. As matters are at present the only use to which most of the Reservation territory could be put, would be evasion of service of arrest by a county Sheriff.

STATE SCHOOL LANDS.

(Silver State.)

Last week applications were filed in the State Land office for 2,720 acres of school lands. Of these 240 acres were applied for at $2 50 per acre, and the remainder at $1 25 per acre. During the corresponding week in December, 1884, 9,400 acres were applied for at $1 25 per acre, and 80 acres at $2 50 per acre. The Free Lance attributes this decrease to the order of the Board of Regents, which is resulting disastrously to our School lands.

Isn't it about time that the majority of the Board of Regents had their eyes opened wide enough to see the error of their ways? The State has 1,700,000 acres of land to dispose of for the benefit of the public schools. At the rate at which they are now being applied for, they will not be sold for several generations. They belong to the General Government until selected by the intending purchaser and applied for by the State. They are not taxable for any purpose, and the State School Fund loses not only the interest on the purchase but 30 per cent. of the amount for which they might be assessed. At the rate of $1 25 per acre, one-fifth of which to be paid at the time of selection, and the balance in 25 years, with interest at six per cent. per annum, payable annually, the School Fund would receive $2 75 per acre for the lands, besides its proportion of what they might be assessed for. This is so much better than holding the lands for generations, that even prejudiced politicians, selected for Regents—not because of their knowledge of lands, but simply because their party happened to be in the majority—ought to be able to see it.

Death in the Cyclone's Path.

PANAMA, Dec. 17.—Colon has been visited by a very severe cyclone, which has done considerable damage. It commenced on the 2d instant about 2 p. m., and next day lulled, but commenced again, with terrible severity. All steamers in the Port put out to sea for safety, returned and had again to put out. The damage to property has been very heavy, and the loss to life more serious. The following vessels were sunk with their crews: The Holden, Karman, Blanche, Ortolan, Atwood, Ariel, Veteran, Ocean, Linton, Avelina, Stella, Catalina, Figr, Douglas, and two others whose names could not be ascertained. Rain poured down in torrents, and a terrible gale of wind from the northeast set in. The Royal Mail's new freight office was destroyed by the storm. Wharf No. 4, belonging to the Panama Railway, is almost demolished, the rails having been torn up and the earthworks destroyed by the force of the tornado.

The Naturalization Law Violated.

The Chinese located in El Paso, Texas, are taking out naturalization papers, and intend to become permanent citizens. Eight have already been made citizens. It is thought the whole local colony, numbering over 200, will secure papers. Leading Chinese there state that the movement will become general, and their countrymen in all the cities and towns in the Southwest will speedily renounce their allegiance to China, and become American voters.

On the basis of a population of 60,000,000, the consumption of tobacco in this country for the last fiscal year was equal to a little over 1 lb. of tobacco and snuff for every man, woman and child, and also about 75 cigars and cigarettes. As many do not use tobacco in any form, the actual consumption per capita was of course much larger. The tobacco taxes last year were equal to 44c per head, or more than one-half the levy for paying the interest on the National debt. There were 18,672 cigar factories in operation in the United States in 1884, of which New York was credited with 4,521, Pennsylvania, 4,422, Ohio, 1,553, and Illinois 1,250. These factories consumed 79,353,371 lbs. leaf tobacco, which they made up into 3,372,982,038 cigars, and 926,303,500 cigarettes. More than one-third of these cigars and over two-thirds of the cigarettes were made in the State of New York. Though Pennsylvania has within 100 as many factories as New York, she made no cigarettes and less than two-thirds of the number of cigars. It is noticed that cigars are made in every State except Mississippi, and cigarettes in nine States. California has 324 cigar factories, which consumed 3,810,214 lbs. tobacco in 1884, turning it into 163,722,196 cigars and 3,560,700 cigarettes.

The Carson Appeal asks the following conundrum:

Teller has introduced a bill into Congress to provide for the free and unlimited coinage of silver dollars. Isn't it about time that our Pacific Coast Senators get to Washington and take a hand in the fight.

It is now claimed that Daggett is still in the Senatorial ring, notwithstanding that Powning has offered him the Berlin portfolio.—Appeal.

Night before last the officers made a raid on Douglas and Lincoln Avenues and pulled four or five of Reno's hard "lovers," who were notified to appear before Justice Young at 10 o'clock yesterday morning, and at that hour they showed up and plead not guilty to the charge of vagrancy and their trial was set for Monday at 10 o'clock.

Legs Cut Off

Last evening as the V. & T. passenger train was pulling into the depot here John McGushik attempted to cross the track in front of the locomotive and just as he was stepping on to the side next to the depot hotel cowcatcher of the engine struck him and threw him under the wheels, cutting off one leg just below the knee and the other at the ankle. He was carried into the baggage room and the flow of blood stopped as much as possible and then taken to the county hospital, where his legs were properly dressed. He was very weak from loss of blood.

Let's Get Rid of Them.

Reno should take some peaceable yet resolute action, like some of the small towns of California, to get rid of the Chinese. As the laundries are the principal places that keep the coolies occupied here, we should withdraw our patronage from them, and if necessary, form a joint stock company and erect a steam laundry as Truckee has done, thus giving employment to several white persons and at the same time ridding the town of one of its worst pests. There are lots of poor families in Reno who would gladly take in washing to sustain a living, but who are now compelled to go rather short sometimes on account of being unable to get enough employment to make both ends meet, and solely because the Chinese have so completely monopolized the washing business of the town. They have even carried this monopoly so far that the laundry firms are all linked together and not long since raised the prices of washing; then, also, if a person who has given them their washing complains about their losing or ruining a piece of clothing, they get very saucy and quit, notifying the other firms of their action and to a certain extent that person is boycotted, and has some trouble in securing another wash Chinaman. This should be stopped, and could be very easily done if the people would join together and take the necessary action as they should. Somebody start the ball rolling.

The Keyes Mine.

The Virginia Chronicle says: The confidence of lien-holders in the value of the Keyes mine is evidenced by the fact that in most cases they have accepted the stock issued by the company at the rate of $1 per share in liquidation of their claims. The majority of them are men who have worked in the mine, and they are unanimous in the opinion that there is sufficient ore in sight to pay the indebtedness on the property and lease a dividend for shareholders.

The expense of raising the ore will be very slight, as the cone of the vein was uncovered at a depth of only 200 feet from the surface. They will begin operations on the 300 level, and will drift the hanging wall which lies several hundred feet east of the shaft. A drift will also be run to the west to strike the foot-wall and the ore lying between the 200 and 300 levels, stopped out by means of upraises. The management expect to start work in the mine some time in January.

Frank Leslie's Sunday Magazine For January, beginning the Nineteenth Volume, is a brilliant holiday number, abounding in text and pictures appropriate to the season. It opens an interesting and instructive essay on "Christmas Carols." Dr. Talmage's sermon is on "Christmas in America," and there are several Christmas and New Year's stories and poems, all finely illustrated. Perhaps the article that will attract the most attention is "Prehistoric America," by the Rev. Geo. T. Rider, with twenty-two illustrations. There are many short and timely articles, and the full-page pictures are beautiful and numerous. The regular serials, "Love's Harvest," and "Dilettante Days" go on and the Editorial Departments are full and complete. Published by Mrs. Frank Leslie, 53, 55 and 57 Park Place, New York city, at 25 cents a number, or $2 50 a year, postpaid.

Thanks!

Professor Spykens, whose weather experience since '49 in California and Nevada entitles his opinion to considerable consideration, says there will be no further severe Wintry weather until after the Christmas and New Year holidays. Heavy snow storms and severe weather will then set in and continue into February, and perhaps March. There will be good sleighing in the middle of January. The New York Herald weather bureau figures out a mild Winter for the Atlantic slope as the result of the phenomenal rain on the Pacific Coast. The excess of the Pacific Coast rainfall in the Winter of 79-80, though not nearly so marked as now, was due to a succession of storms coming in from the Pacific Ocean, which apparently modified the Winter in the Rocky Mountain plateaus and had some influence in producing generally the mild Winter of 1880 in the United States.

Fine moonlight nights.

Gosh!

The Salt Lake Tribune thus relieves itself:

Of the singing of Mme. Emma Nevada herself only words of warmest admiration would satisfy those who listened to her last night. She has not so much power as Patti, especially in her middle register, but when she rises to the heights of song it would be but a dull-eared lark that would not fall out of her tree in admiration. No flute could be sweeter; no bugle call could be more thrilling. To the ear her voice is like what old Tokay wine is to the taste, which brings intoxication before one thinks, but makes him so happy that he does not much care if he never gets sober. Besides the wonderful quality and rare compass of her voice, every note shows that it is under perfect discipline; whether it takes a flight to the clouds or whether it seizes a note and smothers it with a long warble, or when climbing the golden stairs of song, or, so to speak, sliding down the banisters off melody, it is all under the bit and rein of perfect discipline, albeit the art is so perfect that its manifestation seems as much the perfect abandonment of nature as is the coo of its dove or the curlew's cry.

Arrested by the Marshal.

The Winnemucca Silver State says B. Jackson, who keeps a restaurant and saloon on Bride street near the post-office, was arrested Thursday evening by U. S. Marshal Corbett, for selling unstamped cigars. He was taken to Elko to be examined before U. S. Commissioner Dorsey. It is said that Green who was arrested there some weeks ago upon a similar charge and held to answer before the United States Grand Jury, has made affidavits which implicate Jackson in the unstamped cigar business.

The President's Nominations.

In executive session the Republican Senators ordered that all of the President's nominations be printed in the Record. There were some objections on the Democratic side, on the ground that such a proceeding was unusual and in violation of precedent, but no formal opposition was offered. This is the first time such a thing has been done, and the motive for it is to advertise the number of Republicans who have been removed to make places for Democrats. The nominations show in each case whether they are to fill a vacancy or to succeed a suspended official, and the Republican Senators think the country should know how far President Cleveland has applied the policy indicated in his message. It has been determined on the Republican side to give as much publicity to the proceedings of executive sessions as possible, and although the suggestion to discuss nominations with open doors will not be adopted, much more of the general proceedings will get into the records of this Congress than ever before. A Senator said: "We do not propose to place any obstructions in the way of the President in dispensing the patronage of his office. We will not refuse any of his nominations when they appear to be fit ones, but there is a disposition to permit the country to know as much as is proper of the character and qualifications of the men he appoints to office, as well as the grounds upon which he makes removals."

Nothing has yet been decided in regard to the disposition of the Sharon bequest to the Golden Gate Park at San Francisco. It is understood that the Park Commissioners favor a music hall and that Mr. Sharon's son inclines to a splendid ornamental entrance, while the general public seem to prefer the scheme of an artificial lake, to be known as Lake Sharon.

It is currently reported at Peking, China, and generally credited that the Emperor will be married in February next, at which time the Empress Regent will retire, and the young Emperor will take possession of the Government.
